Future Home of the North Texas Chinese Church

October 28th, 2011

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ:

Peace be to you from our Lord Jesus Christ. Thanks to the grace of God and participation of the brothers and sisters, the North Texas Chinese Church building project has reached a new stage since its inauguration in 2005. Through the acquisition of the current site, the architectural designs and the issue of the building permit, we have witnessed God's preparations and bountiful blessings. After prayers in seeking His will and timing, the Deacon Board met in October and slated the date of November 27th, 2011 to break ground and dedicate this project to the glory of God.
